

showrooms

ARTISTS IN RESIDENCE

With the recent opening of Frey Norris Contemporary & Modern in San Francisco's Yerba Buena Arts district, there's no excuse not to get lost in art for a few hours. Housed in a 5,100 square foot industrial space designed by Gensler & Associates, the museum features inaugural exhibitions by local artists including Dana Harel and Laurel Roth in the contemporary gallery, while paintings by Frida Kahlo and Wolfgang Paalen are on display in the modern gallery. 161 Jessie St., San Francisco, 415.346.7812. www.freynorris.com

ANOTHER TREASURE CHEST

After calling Newport Beach home for more than ten years, Antonio's Bella Casa has opened doors to a second location in Los Angeles. The new space, meticulously curated by antiquarian Tony Buccola, is stocked with objets d'art such as marble busts, gilded Venetian mirrors, Murano chandeliers, French armchairs, and rare finds plucked straight from his travels to Italy. 8469 Melrose Place, Los Angeles. www.antoniosbellacasa.com

